

Soldiers Firing on Enemy Positions

Description

Tank destroyers, serving as artillery, fire on enemy positions at night in the snow. They are using two types of ammunition, one which has very bright powder flash, and another which has a dull red glow that gives off very little light. Sparsbach area, France.

Date(s)

January 26, 1945

Accession Number

63-527

8x10 inches (21x26 cm) Black & White

Related Collection Redding, John M. Papers

Keywords Artillery Battles Soldiers Tanks (Military science) World War, 1939-1945

HST Keywords World War II - General File; France - World War II - General

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Credit: U.S. Army Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.