

Description

Washington D.C. home of the Pan-American Union, an international organization formally established by the twenty-one republics of North, Central, and South America in 1910. It is now the General Secretariat for the Organization of American States (OAS). The building was completed in 1910 and was a gift of Andrew Carnegie.

Date(s) ca.

1949

Accession Number 58-496

8x10 inches (21x26 cm) Black & White

Keywords International agencies Public buildings

Rights The Library is unaware of any copyright claims to this item; use at your own risk.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.