Letter to Captain Milo Mason

A. Lanis Set. 16. 1816. Dear Malson; I ought to have written you long before this, according to promin; but I have been monster "on the wing", that I hardly have time to make the official reports that devoter on me as a duty. have now hissin any, to write a very hasty swall, in which I can only give you a confund of wayward shitch of my trucks . - From the time I left M. A. till my arrival at this place, which occupied 40 days, I lost only six by which commences at the little Miami, the Country day all the meanium, I ever hund thing whom it. however the people, are apparently poor, execut in the particularly to their exersion indolune, neglecting the cultivation of their farms, for the so he of hunting . - The habitations are gonerally meen butions buits of lags, - illy culus lated to shetter from the incluminiss of the weather, - the or - cupants being too lary to take up the mud & day at this doors, and that the figures between the logs; - Thy ye meanly chal, - the garments of the children in many in stamus being more characteristic of a savage, than of a civilized taste: - Their gon fields of gardens an enfound to be overrun with weats; - while you may see min and womin, bull grown boy, & girls, sauntwing about with nothing to do, or indulying themselves in some un proportable amusument ___ we called at a place of this description, to him a man to row our bout for us, - the roould not enjuye for less than BI. her day 4 his board, saying that he could make $8. at home, - get we found him tounging about at his ease, and let him in the same condition

Description

This is a letter written by Stephen Long to Captain Milo Mason on September 16, 1816.

Date(s)

September 18, 1958

Accession Number 59-182-1

8x10 inches (21x26 cm) Black & White

Keywords Signatures (Writing)

HST Keywords Documents - Letters; Long, Stephen; Mason, Milo

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Credit: Harry S. Truman Library Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.