The act authorizing United States assistance to Greece and Turkey, which I have just signed, is an important step in the building of peace. Its passage by overwhelming majorities in both Houses of the Congress is proof that the United States earnestly desires peace and is willing to make a vigorous effort to help create conditions of peace.

Harry Truman

The Historic Greece-Turkey document implementing a merciful and practical policy toward the development of world peace was signed by the President of the United States here in the Penthouse of the Hotel Muehlebach, Kansas City, Missouri on May 22, 1947.
