

General A. A. Vandegrift Before Senate Committee

Description

General A. A. Vandegrift, head of the U.S. Marines, told a surprised Senate committee today that proposed unification of the Armed Services would reduce the Marine Corps to "military impotence" and strip it of "everything but name." Vandegrift was the first high active officer in Armed Service to oppose provisions of President Truman's unification program. From: Beth Gore.

Date(s)

April 22, 1947

Accession Number

99-1211

4.5x3.5 Black & White

Keywords Generals Legislators Marines Legislative hearings

HST Keywords

People Pictured Vandegrift, A. A. (Alexander Archer), 1887-1973

Rights The Library is unaware of any copyright claims to this item; use at your own risk.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Credit: Harris & Ewing Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.