

Truman greeting visitors at North entrance of Truman Library

Description
