

Photograph of the Bell H-13B Helicopter

Description

View of a Bell-built H-13B helicopter in flight with two occupants. This is an example of one of the helicopters viewed by President Truman during his visit to Fort Bragg, North Carolina, on October 4, 1949, to review airborne maneuvers as well as to review 20,000 troops and inspect new artillery weapons. This helicopter is used by the Army Field Forces for a variety of serial assignments, including liaison, fire control, wire laying, transport and evacuation and is manufactured by the Bell Aircraft Corporation, Buffalo, NY.
