seem to mean so much to him. He's had as much a part of the Grandview community—where his 92-year-old mother, his sister and his brother have their residences—as he could be without actually living there. He still holds his membership in Camp 4311, and has done so continuously since he joined it in 1911, making his premium payments to Camp Secretary Tom Parker there, through Miss Mary Jane Truman, only sister of the President. No, you can't tell these Grandview folks anything about "Harry." They know him and they'll tell you that becoming President can't change him a bit. Their collective appraisal of him, put simply and sincerely, is this: "He's worth for the job all states make."
