

Dynamite sled on the right of way

Description

Dynamite sled on the right of way over Chestnut Ridge in Pennsylvania. This scene is in the Allegheny Foothills within rifle shot of the spot where George Washington, with a company of Virginia Militia, surprised and defeated the French General Jumonville on May 28, 1754. This touched off the French and Indian War. From the Scrapbook War Emergency Pipelines, Inc.: Construction Views, Eastern Extension of East Texas-East Coast Pipeline Volume II.
