

Description

Presentation of the National Capital Sesquicentennial stamp takes place in Postmaster General Jesse Donaldson's office. Chief Justice Fred Vinson represented the Federal Government Judicial Branch. Carter Barron represented the Sesquicentennial Commission as Vice President of that Committee. The stamp went on sale to the general public on August 2, 1950.

Date(s)

August 2, 1950

Accession Number 96-809

8x10 inches (21x26 cm) Black & White

Keywords Anniversaries Cabinet officers Judges Postage stamps

People Pictured Barron, Carter T., 1905-1950 Donaldson, Jesse M. (Jesse Monroe), 1885-1970 Vinson, Fred M., 1890-1953

Rights The Library is unaware of any copyright claims to this item; use at your own risk.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.