

so close to the enemy that their shells all fell far on us - Planting three guns of the battery in this position. when it swept the Enemy heavy blows - Lieutenant Williston mowed one of his brass 12-pounders on to the skirmish line: in fact the line was moved to the front to allow him to get an eligible position - when he remained with his gun in the face of the strengthened Enemy (who advanced to its very muzzle) dealing death and destruction in their ranks
with double loads of canister -"

Description

A copy of an 1894 letter from Lt. E.B. Williston. From:
Jackson County Historical Society

Date(s)

1894

Accession Number 63-31-11

5x7 inches (13x18 cm) Black & White

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.