

Color Photo of Tourist Standing With a Group of Mongolian Natives

Description

Exterior group scene which contains several unidentified Mongolian natives, some dressed in the native del coat. The tall, white haired man in center is unidentified and probably part of the Mongolian tour group. Charles Thayer headed a party of fourteen Americans who traveled to Mongolia on a vacation in the summer of 1963, probably in June. They arrived at Ulan Bator and during the trip visited the Gobi Desert as well as the steppes of Mongolia and the site of the ancient capital of Karakorum. Thayer states the group travelled through the provinces more than 1000 kilometers by bus and jeep and another 600 kilometers by air.
