

Color Photo of Mongolian Children Mounted on Their Horses

Accession Number 2008-1258

Description

Exterior view showing two Mongolian children in native costume mounted on their horses. Taken in Mongolia in what appears to be the steppes region. Diplomat and author Charles Thayer headed a party of fourteen Americans who traveled to Mongolia on a vacation in the summer of 1963, probably in June. They arrived at Ulan Bator and during the trip visited the Gobi Desert as well as the steppes of Mongolia and the site of the ancient capital of Karakorum. Thayer states the group travelled through the provinces more than 1000 kilometers by bus and jeep and another 600 kilometers by air.
