

Description

View of what appears to be a boat of some kind, perhaps near a harbor. Location is not given, possibly the Gulf of Mexico. Image is with a series of photographs which were taken from a U.S. aircraft carrier. Charles W. Thayer was invited to a civilian orientation cruise at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Florida, held May 23-25, 1968. Part of the experience included one day at sea aboard the aircraft carrier the U.S.S. Lexington to observe flight operations. This photograph may have been taken during this visit. Contact sheet image, original color negative in Library holdings.

Accession Number 2008-1882-04

Date(s)

May 1968

1x1.5 Black & White

Related Collection Thayer, Charles W. Papers

Keywords Boats and boating Water

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.