

Fotis Makris Speaking at Conference

Accession Number 63-1390-03

9.25x7 inches Black & White

Keywords Economic assistance Labor leaders Labor unions

People Pictured Makris, Fotis Strachan, D. Alan (Douglas Alan), 1903-1996

Rights The Library is unaware of any copyright claims to this item; use at your own risk.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.

Description

Secretary-General Fotis Makris of the General Confederation of Greek Labor (left, in front of microphone) delivers greetings to American Labor on Labor Day. Also present are Economic Cooperation Administration Labor Director D. Alan Strachan, United States Embassy Labor Attache John Correll, and Economic Cooperation Administration Labor Information Specialist Pat Frayne. All others are unidentified. Standing at the microphone is Secretary General Fotis Makris of the General Confederation of Greek Labor, he is speaking to Americans on American Labor Day, which was the first European observance of the holiday.

Date(s)

September 5, 1949