

Description

This is a photograph of a young boy on the Via Dolorosa in Jerusalem. E. Clifton Daniel wrote: "This little boy carries a palm frond woven with flowers. For him it is Palm Sunday -- the day when Christ entered Jerusalem the week before his crucifixion. The Easter Sunday of the Orthodox Christian churches follows a week after that of our church. Hence, Easter Sunday for us is Palm Sunday for the Orthodox, including this little boy." This photograph is numbered "8". The child in the photograph is unidentified. It is part of a series of ten photographs that record Daniel's experience in Jerusalem and is part of a group of photographs originally sent by E. Clifton Daniel, Jr. to his parents from Jerusalem.

Date(s)

ca.
1950

Accession Number 2016-839

2.1 x 2.3 inches    Black & White

Related Collection Daniel, Margaret Truman and E. Clifton Daniel Papers

Rights The Library is unaware of any copyright claims to this item; use at your own risk.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Credit: E. Clifton Daniel    Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.