

George Warren Seated With United States Delegates at Refugee Meeting

Accession Number 2018-66

Description

Men pose for a photograph with a sign in French for "United States" on the table. George L. Warren, a long time principal adviser on refugees and displaced persons for the Department of State is seated on the right. Seated to his left is Francis E. Walter, U.S. Congressman from Pennsylvania. Others in view are not identified. It is believed to have been taken at an International Migration Conference in association with the beginning of ICEM (Intergovernmental Committee for European Migration) held in Brussels, Belgium, November, 1951. At this meeting the Provisional Intergovernmental Committee for the Movements of Migrants from Europe was created.
