

George Warren Seated With United States Delegates at Refugee Meeting

Accession Number

2018-65

Description
