

Accession Number M627

Description

Four glued together French maps, two of which are titled "Douaumont" and "EIX." The maps of northeast France are overprinted to show trench systems in 1917, among other details. Pencil annotations throughout the map, along with several stickers, highlight unit headquarters, unit positions, battle lines, and other details. Other annotated lines suggest artillery activity and potential targets, possibly during the Meuse-Argonne Offensive.
