Description

Two French maps glued together with an annotated title: "Operations of the 35th Division in the Meuse-Argonne Drive, September 26 to October 1, 1918." The map shows lines of advance, location of units and prisoners, and material captured. The positions of the 137th, 138th, 139th, and 140th are represented on this map. A pencil note on the back of the map reads: "Official map made up by Army Hqrs. Showing 35 DIV advance in Argonne. These drawings taken from intelligence reports and map sketches turned in by Intel Section of 140 Inf R E Truman R.I.O." Donated by Ralph E. Truman.
