

NEWSMAP

FOR THE ARMED FORCES

23rd Week of the War - 120th Week of U.S. Participation

THE WAR FRONTS

EASTERN FRONT:

BURMA: Action in Burma might be decided in the next few days. The British forces in the Mogaung Valley are being pushed southward by the enemy. The British force was moving down from Kungyung (a small town) toward the town of Mogaung. The British also reported that they had captured the town of Mogaung.

ITALY: The battle for Cassino was still a desperate one. The Italian forces in the Fifth Army that started with a tremendous air and artillery bombardment on the night of March 15. The Germans were not only still at Cassino but were bringing fresh troops and improving their positions. New Zealand troops within the area are facing a wide heavy bombardment because of enemy control of the great hills against which the new tactics. Similarly the Indian troops after occupying the town of Cassino, the Italian forces were still at Cassino.

SOUTHWEST PACIFIC: In the Admiralty Islands troops who had been snipping up Manus and Los Negros islands were still at Manus. The islands, which were taken without opposition, were still at Manus. The islands, which were taken without opposition, were still at Manus.

WESTERN EUROPE: Heavy units of the Eighth Army are still at the front. The British forces in the Mogaung Valley are being pushed southward by the enemy. The British force was moving down from Kungyung (a small town) toward the town of Mogaung. The British also reported that they had captured the town of Mogaung.

Eastern Front

Scale: 0 to 100 statute miles

ANZIO: Despite attacks by glider bombs, submarines, fighter planes and artillery, Allied supply lines to the Anzio beachhead continue to function. Above is a view of the beachhead with landing craft discharging their cargo.

This is the Army Air Force Troop Carrier (Y2C-13) carrying a jeep. The jeep is being carried in a sling. The carrier is a four-engine aircraft. It is shown here next to the four-engine carrier.

Now it's ten men in a jeep. The little wonder has grown up and been converted into a jeep. It is shown here next to the four-engine carrier.

The Y2C-13, troop carrier of the Army Air Force Troop Carrier Command, carries more than two dozen soldiers with their packs, rifles, mortars and machine guns.

German prisoners captured in the Cassino area south of Rome by the U.S. Army. The prisoners are being guarded by American soldiers. The prisoners are being guarded by American soldiers.

German, as of interest, it forms a tactical unit. The German soldiers are being guarded by American soldiers. The German soldiers are being guarded by American soldiers.

S.W. PACIFIC

Northern Bismarcks

Scale: 0 to 100 statute miles

White phosphorus bombs burst over Japanese positions at Rabaul, New Guinea.

Aerial incendiaries are used by the Army Air Force to burn down enemy positions. The incendiaries are used to burn down enemy positions. The incendiaries are used to burn down enemy positions.

Seven main types are in use. At left a machine operator is loading the incendiary bombs. The incendiary bombs are used to burn down enemy positions. The incendiary bombs are used to burn down enemy positions.

Accession Number M1755

Description

An American map titled "Newsmap for the Armed Forces: Monday, April 3, 1944." The map of the Eastern front shows international boundaries, railroads, rivers, the Axis-Soviet boundary as of June 22, 1941, the line of farthest Axis advance in 1941-1942, and the present battle line. The map of the southwest Pacific, near the Admiralty Islands, the St. Matthias Group, New Britain, and New Ireland, shows principal trails, secondary trails, and tramways. Printed text and photographs reveal news on multiple fronts.

Date(s)

April 3, 1944

Cartographer Army Information Branch, Army Service Forces, War Department.

Keywords World War, 1939-1945

Photo Color Color

Physical Size 35 X 47 inches

Related Collection (Plain)

Thirty-Fifth Division Association Records

Restrictions Unrestricted

Scale 1 inch = 100 miles. Southwest Pacific: 5 1/2 inches = 100 miles

TIF Identifier M1755.tif

Rights

This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Credit: Army Information Branch, Army Service Forces, War Department.

Courtesy Harry S. Truman Library & Museum, Independence, Missouri.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's map number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images. Fees are charged for higher resolution scans.