Description

An American map titled "Newsmap for the Armed Forces: Monday, November 13, 1944." The map of the Eastern front shows railroads, rivers, international boundaries, battle lines, and areas under Soviet and German control. The map of the area near Cologne, Germany shows railroads, roads, rivers, international boundaries, and other details. The map of the Western front, focusing on the Netherlands, shows railroads, roads, rivers, international boundaries, battle lines, and areas under Allied and German control. The map of the northern Philippines shows shows railroads, roads, rivers, relief, and other details. Printed text reveals news on multiple fronts. On the back, printed text and a cartoon sketch, titled "Post-war Plans," aims to steer soldiers in the direction of financial responsibility.
