

Accession Number M96

Description

An American map of the Pacific Ocean that shows the coastline of North America, Asia, and Australia. Handwriting and markings, in red and blue pencil, describe agreements made between the United States and the Soviet Union at the Potsdam Conference. The Sea of Okhotsk is circled and is described as follows: "To be a zone of mutual operations, according to mutual agreements-Terminal, Page 328." Separate zones of operation in the Sea of Japan are identified by red pencil markings (Soviet Union) and blue pencil markings (United States). Handwriting relating to this agreement reads: "Sea of Japan Terminal, Page 327." Separate zones of operation in the Bering Sea are identified by red pencil markings (Soviet Union) and blue pencil markings (United States). Handwriting relating to this agreement reads: "Bering Sea Terminal, Page 328" and "Thence to Diomedé (65-45/169) and C. Dezhneva (66-05/169-40)."
