Description

An Italian map titled "Linee del Compartimento di Trieste." A printed annotation in English reads: "Facsimile of an Italian authentic document on acts of sabotage by Yugoslav partisans along railway lines in the Julian March between the 25th July and the 13th April 1944." The red lines on the map, accompanied by dates, represent the points of the Yugoslav Partisans' sabotage efforts. The other lines on the map represent railways, railway stations, railway stops, and various boundaries. Handwriting is partially illegible but the rest reads: "...42000 Jugoslavo Kill." Handwriting on the back identifies this map as being part of the Official File. The handwriting reads in part: "Removed from O.F. 233, Memo 7-19-46."
