

WELCOME

FOR LEAVE TROOPS

To: Officers and Men Arriving in Paris on Leave.
You have been selected by your Commanding Officer as deserving of a pass to Paris.

As Commanding General of Seine Section, Communications Zone, ETOUSA, I welcome you to Paris. I want to assure you that I, as well as all the members of my command, desire greatly to do everything in our power to make your stay, however long it is, as enjoyable and worthwhile as possible.

Take advantage of the things that interest you among the great and varied number of activities Paris has to offer. We have endeavored to guide you and to aid you in doing this.

Call upon us, any of the personnel of Seine Section, for anything we can do to make your visit to Paris a truly pleasant and valuable experience.

PLEAS B. ROGERS
Brigadier General, USA,
Commanding

FROM YOUR COMMANDING GENERAL

• TWELFTH ARMY GROUP

It is desired that the regulations promulgated by Commanding General, Seine Section be adhered to; that personnel correctly wear the uniform provided with so as to maintain a neat and soldierly appearance while on pass in the Paris area.

BRADLEY

• SIXTH ARMY GROUP

Personnel of this Army Group are expected to comply fully with uniform regulations while on leave status in the Paris area. Troops of this command have in the past received adequate instruction in this regard prior to departure. In view of your recent leave, every effort will be made to intensify this orientation in order to improve the existing situation and to obviate the necessity of having to resort to disciplinary action against members from organizations under my control.

DEVERS

• USSTAF (MAIN)

Further action has been taken within this command to assist you in maintaining discipline in the Seine Section, Com Zone. This Headquarters expects all Air Force personnel to comply with your requirements. Such action as you may take will receive the cooperation of this Headquarters.

SPAATZ

• FIRST US ARMY

For personnel on leave or furlough in Paris:
The First Army is proud of you for your magnificent accomplishments in combat. As Army Commander, I expect every one of you to maintain pride in yourself and your Army, to reflect soldierly appearance and exemplary conduct while in Paris.

HODGES

• THIRD US ARMY

Staff of the Third Army have reason to be proud in seeing you in Paris. The uniform you wear gives evidence of this pride. Those who fail to comply with the uniform regulations are a discredit. Timely punishment for same is indicated and requested.

FATTON

• SEVENTH US ARMY

All personnel of my Command will maintain a neat and orderly appearance while on leave, pass or furlough at Paris and will comply with uniform regulations.

PATCH

• NINTH US ARMY

Ninth US Army personnel are expected to wear the prescribed uniform neatly and correctly and to maintain the highest standards of appearance and discipline while on leave.

SIMPSON

• FIFTEENTH US ARMY

All members of the 15th Army are expected to conduct themselves at all times in such a manner as to reflect credit on themselves and the Army. Neatness of appearance is especially important in Paris where our soldiers are numbers are closely observed by civilians and military personnel of many nations.
Rigid enforcement of regulations regarding the wearing of authorized uniforms is necessary.

Description

A brochure titled "The United States Army: Guide for Leave Troops." The larger map of Paris shows roads, railroad stations, museums, main buildings, parks, churches, sporting venues, theaters, subway lines and stations, subway lines under construction, and other details. The smaller map of the Paris Metro shows each line and its stops. Printed messages from several Commanding Generals relay expectations and standards that the soldier must attend to. Other printed text includes a short history on some of the main buildings and an index that locates areas on the larger map. Printed text on the back notifies soldiers of the services and events available to them while on leave. A note referencing "Hotel Raphael" and a show ticket from "Folies-Bergere" are attached.
