

Prime Minister Attlee, President Harry Truman, and General Secretary Stalin at the Potsdam Conference

Transmitted by Signal Corps radio from Berlin over Acme Telephoto

Description

Photograph of (L to R): Great Britain Prime Minister Clement R. Attlee, United States President Harry S. Truman, and the General Secretary of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union Joseph Stalin, seated in the garden at the Potsdam Conference. This photograph was taken on July 26, 1945 and was the first ever color news photograph to be transmitted and received by radio waves and published. The photograph was taken by the US Army Signal Corps and transmitted by Master Sergeant Joseph E. Dunn from Potsdam, Germany, to Arlington, Virginia in the United States, where it was received by Technical Sergeant Arthur Grant Anderson. It was transmitted using a transceiver from ACME Newspictures Telephoto Co.

Date(s)

July 26, 1945

Accession Number
2020-1094

5x7 inches (13x18 cm) Color

Keywords Potsdam Conference, 1945 Diplomacy

People Pictured Attlee, C. R. (Clement Richard), 1883-1967 Truman, Harry S., 1884-1972 Stalin, Joseph, 1879-1953

Rights Public Domain - This item is in the public domain and can be used freely without further permission.

Note: If you use this image, rights assessment and attribution are your responsibility.

Harry S. Truman Library & Museum.

Attention media: Please make note of this item's accession number. Print out this page and retain it for your permissions records before downloading this image file for possible publication. Library staff cannot sign permissions forms or provide additional paperwork. The Library charges no usage fees for downloaded images.